What a month October turned out to be for Porsche aficionados. The Balloon Fiesta break-fast was a great party with the best weather of the week; the Chili Cook-off always has more good, homemade food than can possibly be sampled in one meal; Rennsport is taking place at Laguna Seca as I write this; and we've got Oktober Fiesta in Deming next week. I suppose we should be thankful and take full advantage of our fall weather here in the high desert.

It's election season again. Your votes for the club officers are due in the post office box by November 20th. Please see the ballot later in this Ramblings for details.

The final autocross of the year is Saturday, November 12th, and is the annual charity autocross at Route 66 Casino. This event costs $50, includes lunch, and all of the entry fees go to our charity of choice, the Barrett Foundation. It's election season again. The final autocross of the year is Saturday, November 12th, and is the annual charity autocross at Route 66 Casino. This event costs $50, includes lunch, and all of the entry fees go to our charity of choice, the Barrett Foundation.

Even if you plan not to autocross, come out to show your support, and write a tax deductible check to the Barrett Foundation. The efforts of our club garnered an Honorable Mention at Parade this year for PCA's Public Service Award. This annual event is just one of the reasons why.

Did you know Porsche has its own channel on YouTube? If you want to see the latest ads, announcements, and other videos, that's the place. There's a great Rennsport Reunion IV video from the track at Laguna Seca. Probably more than one at this point.

Mark your calendars for the final Membership Meeting of the year on December 6th, 6:00 p.m. at Four Seasons Cleaning. Directly following that meeting will be the Planning Meeting for 2012. If you'd like to propose an event for the club, or just get a head start on your 2012 calendar, this is the meeting to attend. Do you have an idea for a drive-out? A tech session? Something we've never done before? We'd love to hear from you.

The Roadrunner Region Holiday party is coming up on December 10th at Tamaya Resort. I'm guessing by the time you read this Dennis Chamberlain will be accepting RSVPs. There are always some hotel rooms available for us. That's really a wonderful venue. Join Jude and me for a walk in the bosque – we try to skip rocks across the Rio Grande. Following tradition, the next day will be the Butterfield Jeweler's Toys for Kids Car Show at the beautiful Butterfield Plaza in Albuquerque. Entry for this event is an unwrapped toy. Hot cider and carolers abound, and it's always for a good cause. Not to mention a great place to find a perfect holiday gift.

Take care and I hope to see you at an event soon.

2nd Annual Tent Rocks Hiking Tour

Dennis and Joan Ledbetter will once again lead a drive out tour to Tent Rocks National Monument on the Saturday after Thanksgiving, November 26th.

Meet: at the Porsche dealership in Albuquerque at 9am. Coming from the North? Meet us at the Kewa Café on route 22 at the exit 259 gas stations.

Fee: $5 park fee for each vehicle. If you have a National Parks Senior Pass admission is free. Website: http://www.blm.gov/nm/st/en/prog/recreation/rio_puerco/kasha_katuwe_tent_rocks.html

After: We’ll finish the tour ending at The Range in Bernalillo for lunch.

RSVP to Joan’s e-mail jaled@aol.com by Monday, Nov 21. If you will be coming from the north and joining us at exit 259 at the Kewa Café, please include that information and a cell phone number so we can be in touch if necessary on the day of the drive.
For a long time, I’ve always wanted to join the Alpine Mountain Region on their annual Fall tour and this was the year I finally did it! Several Roadrunners were in attendance: Mickey and Ann Hollingshead, Joan and Dennis Ledbetter, Bill Muir, and Andy and Marion Simon. My Littleton, CO-based brother, Rick, joined me.

At check-in, we received the first tour booklet and a CD with some great driving music. There was also a set of trivia questions, with answers contained in the lyrics of the songs. Chris and Kathleen collected the answer sheets at the end of the tour and the highest scores were worth valuable prizes! We also received a beautiful hand-carved and painted pine tree.

Everyone met for breakfast at a country club in Monument, which is part of the community where Chris and Kathleen, tour hosts, reside. The buffet was most delicious and after we ate, Chris and Kathleen went over the basic plan for the weekend: we would get instructions at three different times and we would eventually end up somewhere for dinner and somewhere for the evening. That’s why this was called a mystery tour! Chris and Kathleen set up a charity drive where we could guess at the final destination for $5/guess.

There were 43 cars in our group and about 80 people. We started out on country roads northwest out of Monument, and headed toward US-285. I had seen copies of the LENNON’S instructions before and they’re very detailed, with “fun facts” and colorful directional icons.

True to the description of the tour, the fall colors were absolutely stunning! Lots of gold, some reds, and still some mountain flower splendor. We drove on US-6 west toward Loveland Pass and it was great to see groups of beautiful Porsches, winding their way up the pass.

Lunch was at the Dillion Dam Brewery and the setup was quick and efficient: the pool tables were set with sandwich fixings and salads and the servers brought our beverages. After receiving our second set of instructions, we set off on I-70 toward Minturn and Leadville.

Another photo opportunity at the Tennessee Pass Turnout (elevation, 10,424 feet!). I had been around this area on one of the tours for the Parade in Keystone and it was nice to see the area again. The third set of instructions was handed out and we set off again!

By this time, we knew our final destination would be Keystone and dinner was going to be in Silverthorne. We went over Fremont Pass and headed toward Dillon. My brother and I made a necessary pit stop for ice cream before checking in to our condo.

Dinner was at the Mint Steakhouse, which featured a lava rock grill. We ordered the cut of steak that we wanted or for those who preferred fish, they could order tuna or salmon. The wait-staff advised us on how it would take to cook our steaks for rare, medium, or well-done, and then we were on our own! It was fun standing around the grill, chatting with our fellow cooks. Prizes were handed out and Kathleen, AKA “Molly Denum”, a distant heir to the Levi Strauss fortune, walked around, visiting with everyone.

Everyone was on their own to get home on Sunday and my brother and I joined Mickey and Ann Hollingshead for breakfast in Frisco. I dropped off my brother at his house in Littleton, then hit the highway back to Santa Fe. What a fun weekend!
Each year the Roadrunner Region of the Porsche Club of America salutes its outstanding members with a small plaque or trophy to recognize service and achievement. The Roadrunner Region is recognized as a Class III sized region, meaning that it has between 200 and 500 primary members (not counting associates in this total for classification). Though our region is growing faster and faster and is now over the 300 member level, it is a small group of dedicated and enthusiastic volunteers who keep the region going and growing. Voting to recognize those dedicated volunteers is your way to recognize the people whose work allows everyone to have fun. Please take the time to fill out the ballot on the opposite page, cut it out, stick a first-class stamp on it and mail it in.

Better yet, get involved. Going to an event is fun, but getting involved is even more fun! Sure it might take a few hours out of your month, but what better way to get to know the group of people who understand your Porsche fixation! There are all kinds of ways — large and small — to get involved in one of the fastest growing and most active PCA regions in the country. Just call or e-mail any of the people whose names and contact info is listed on the Officials marquee on page 3 of this newsletter.

Award Descriptions: here’s what you’re voting for….

Enthusiast of the Year: Awarded to the individual who shows great enthusiasm and dedication to the Region, the Marque, and to the Porsche community.

Kim Harmon Instructor of the Year: Named for one of the great enthusiasts and participants in Region activities in the 80s and early 90s, this award is given to that instructor who demonstrates skills in teaching driving skills and safety to new and experienced participants in the Die Serie.

Family of the Year: This award is presented to the family (husband-wife, domestic partnership, father-son, mother-daughter, father-daughter, family unit, etc: i.e., not individuals) who show dedication, service, participation, etc. in Region Activities on an exemplary level.

New Member of the Year: This award has been given sporadically in the Region’s history. It is designed to reward the energy and activity of a member in Region activities over the course of a year by a member who has not previously been active.

Event of the Year: This will be awarded to the organizer of the best event of the year, it can be a drive out, autocross, social event, etc.

Worker of the Year: This award is presented to the individual who is always there helping at any type of event i.e., social, driving etc. not necessarily as a participant but always there to lend a hand.

REGION AWARDS: Region awards are traditional awards recognizing excellence and service to the club. Please write in your preferences below. For further descriptions of these awards see page 24 of this newsletter.

Oktoberfiesta Weekend!

Octoberfiesta Weekend!

While the Carrera Region may be small in size, they really know how to show a girl a good time when putting on their signature event, Oktober Fiesta. A great mix of social and driving events means that no matter what form of Porschefelia you find yourself afflicted with, there were events to satisfy that insatiable Porsche Jones that we all seem to have.

This year’s event kicked off with the traditional Friday night social, a wine tasting at the Luna Rosa Winery in Deming. Samples of the rather extensive list of wines were on offer along with an optional steak dinner. I had yet to dine on a pairing of Merlot, Steak, and Enchilada, but it made for a very tasty combination.

Saturday morning dawned with an 8am drivers meeting preceding the DE at Arroyo Seco Raceway, while those inclined to do so gathered at the hotel for a drive out up to Silver City and some great southwestern driving roads, led by Peter Krebs, which culminated at the track for a catered lunch.

ASR is a track that I never tire of driving. One part high speed straights, one part second gear twists, and one part “How in the hell do I take this corner”. Yes, that’s three parts, but ASR deserves it! As Carrera Region Hot Shoe Bill Walker once said, “There are corners on this track that will have you talking to yourself before too long”. With perhaps 40 cars at the DE, entrants were assured that they could take as many laps as they wanted, tire, gas, and brake longevity notwithstanding.

Saturday evening found the group decamped at The Ranchers Grill for the traditional “All you can drink” banquet with dozens of beautiful Porsche Design door prizes, including a special raffle for two outstanding Porsche Design watches that had everyone salivating. There appeared to be some sort of irregularity with the drawing, as your humble scribe failed to take home one of the two beautiful watches. Word is that Jimmy Carter will be in town next year to monitor the drawing. Our Zone Rep mentioned that he may also ask him to monitor the tech quiz, as there was some sort of irregularity with that activity as well. Anytime your humble scribe wins a tech quiz, you just know that something ain’t right.

And that takes us to Sunday’s autocross. Just to keep things Kosher, the Carrera folks toss out some cones along the higher speed sections of the track, and for good measure, they reverse our direction of travel from the previous day’s DE. That said, for those of us in the Roadrunner Region that have to make do with 1st gear parking lot courses, being able to take a Chicago Box in third gear is a treat to be savored.

Proving that experience and treachery will always trump youth and exuberance, FTD, with a time of one minute flat, went to the aforementioned Bill Walker in his well tuned 911 race car. Next up was Southern Arizona Regions Greg Roberson in his tweaked, Nitto shod, IOS Cayman S, turning a time of around 1:03. And rounding out the podium, your humble scribe in his Showroom Stock Cayman S with a time of about 1:05. Top ladies time went to Elizabeth Roberson in her 997 with a time in the 1:06’s. Other Roadrunners turning in times were Michael Galaviz in his 914-6 (Michael actually caught the car in front of him and had to peel off for a re-run), and James Wilson in his screaming yellow, PDK Cayman S.

It may be a cliché, but a good time was had by all, and we all look forward to the 2012 Oktober Fiesta.

The new 991 version of the 911 is unveiled at Rennsport Reunion to great fanfare.
“Rennsport” means “racing” in German and the Rennsport Reunion was the brainchild of Brian Redman and Bob Carlson, about 10 years ago with the first one at Lime Rock and then next two at Daytona. Our most recent one was at Laguna Seca in Northern California. I flew to San Jose, as I didn’t have enough vacation to join the caravan that left NM a few days before Rennsport began.

After arriving at the track on Friday, I spent the day looking at cars, watching the practice from the stands, visiting with friends -- there were about 14 Roadrunner members there -- and just enjoying the warm afternoon among all of the track candy. It was great to see such a collection of cars – from early 356’s to the new 991s, 904s, 908s, 917s – you name it, all the way up to and including the concept 918RSR. Also on hand were many of the drivers from decades past, as well as mechanics, race-engineers, and designers. Dr. Wolfgang Porsche was there too!

On Saturday, I volunteered to help out at the PCA corral and this afforded me the chance to see the spectators’ cars, and watch as many of them headed onto the track for lunch-time parade laps. The qualifying groups ran in the morning and then there were 3 races in the afternoon.

Sunday morning was very early for me, as my volunteer assignment was to help out at the PCA Hospitality tent on Cayman Island. I could still see a little action on the track and then I was able to hear 4 of the Porsche Factory engineers talk about their work and answer questions from the audience.

There’s not enough room in a short article to really convey the Rennsport Reunion experience so you’ll just have to attend one in person! I’ve heard rumors that the next Reunion will be held at Road Atlanta and you can be sure that I’ll be there!
I’m starting to call this year my sea-to-shining-sea tour since I’ve been on both coasts in pursuit of my PCA Zone Rep position. Last winter I was in Las Vegas, NV, then back to Parade in Savannah in August, then out to Monterey, CA for Rennsport Reunion IV just last week. And that’s not even counting the north to south travel within Zone 9.

Since I last wrote, I made a trip up to the Salt Lake City area where I visited the Intermountain Region for their annual fall Club Race/DE weekend at Miller Motorsport Park. I can’t speak highly enough of this event. First, MMP is a fantastic facility -- kind of like a racetrack version of Oz -- with F1 style pits, NASCAR-event. First, MMP is a fantastic facility -- kind of like a Nascar event. And that’s not even counting the north to south travel within Zone 9.

I wanted to send a special thanks to John Hunt and Kay Koelner for hosting me at their beautiful home in Salt Lake. It was a great weekend.

Unfortunately, at least three factors led to Intermountain’s event attendance being down. First, the economy. We all know about that, although PCA Intermountain’s event attendance being down. First, Unfortunately, at least three factors led to Intermountain’s event attendance being down. First, the economy. We all know about that, although PCA Zone Rep.

Intermountain's event attendance being down. First, Unfortunately, at least three factors led to Intermountain’s event attendance being down. First, the economy. We all know about that, although PCA Zone Rep.

Second, the Intermountain Region really knows how to put on a GREAT event. I’m always impressed with how much in depth knowledge Roadtrack has about the world of motorsports. I’ve always been a fan of their annual fall Club Race on the last day. What a great weekend!

I have to say that my favorite new items were Mac San ford’s chili beans, red and green!

A short respite, then it was off to California for Rennsport. The previous Rennsport Reunions were held back east; the first at Lime Rock, and the other two at Daytona. This year’s was the first on the west coast. I’ve been wanting to attend since I first heard of them and I’ve wanted to visit the racing shrine of Laguna Seca since I was about 8 years old. Who doesn’t have the image of various historic races as the cars spilled over the famous Cork-screw turn?

Though it wasn’t an official Zone 9 Rep function for me, the PCA had requested volunteers to help run the event. So when I got there I helped Parking Chair David Bunch and PCA Cayman Registry Chair Mike Souza to layout the parking lots for the Corrals. Then I was up bright and early the next two mornings directing traffic at the “green” lot. I saw many of you as you came in to the lots. I was really amazed at how many people from Zone 9 attended the event. And, I met a lot of people from all over the country too. The saying really is true; it’s not just the cars, but the people!!

Once my volunteer work was done, I took the time to visit people at the PCA tent and to wander around watching all the cars and meeting the drivers. It was really amazing to see the numbers of cars and driv ers there from the early history of Porsche in 1948 all the way up to the present. It was really a Porscheathion of sights, sounds, people, cars, events, lectures and discussions, and demonstrations. The next one is in three years. I highly recommend that you pencil it in on your calendar and start saving your pennies and do ANYTHING you can to be there. WOW!

I’m not usually much of an autograph hound, but this time around I was on a mission. Some of you may know that at the 2008 Escape the Racetrack in Albuquerque I auctioned off a large-format photo of a Porsche 908 coupe that Vic Elford signed. It brought in $1200 for the Roadrunner Region’s charity program. I’m out to top that, and I mean business. I have gone through my photos from the Watkins Glen Can-Am and Six-Hour in 1973 and found one that I took of George Follmer in his Porsche 917-10, had it blown up to 20x30” and had George sign it during Rennsport. But wait...there’s more (in my best Ron Popeil voice). I also have the race program from that event in 1973 and I’ve had it auto graphed by most of the drivers who were in the event and attended Rennsport. But wait, there’s more. Always looking for ways to benefit my home Region’s charity drive. As time moves forward, the Roadrunner charity chair will benefit my home Region’s charity drive. As time moves forward, the Road runner charity chair will..

As I write this, I’m packing to head down to the Carrera Region’s signature event, the Oktoberfest in Deming, NM. They always do a great job and everyone has lots of fun. Home a few weeks, then it’s back up to SLC for a Parade Planning meeting, and shortly after the Christmas Party tour starts. Lots and lots of driving, from sea to shining sea and from mountains to plains to deserts and back. I look forward to seeing you at one of the events soon!
